ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 9.—A penitentiary guard in charge of eight convicts whom he was transferring from Frankfort to the prison, on the Kentucky Central railroad, reached here yesterday afternoon and started on foot for the prison. Later five of the prisoners were met, who said that one of the prisoners complained that the handcuffs were hurting him, and took advantage of the opportunity to overpower the guard, seized his gun, killed him, and then three of the prisoners made their escape. The other five were trying to reach the prison.

tion.

A Promising Youth.

DALLAS, Texas, May 9.—Lucien Poles, aged sixteen, living near Hutchins, stole his father's horse and rode to Lancaster, where he disposed of it. He then returned, mounted another animal, and armed with a gun took to the woods as a full-fledged highwayman. Riding to Solmeyer's store, he brought the gun to bear on the proprietor, demanding his money or his life, which was answered by five shots from the storekeeper's revolver, whereupon the young hopeful put spurs to his horse and escaped.

VERY FISHY!

The True State of Affairs of the New York Failures Hard to Ascertain.

The Amount Involved by Grant & Ward Very Large—Statement of the Clerk.

A Yellow Pup is the Innocent Cause of a Deadly Quarrel Between Two Brothers.

The New York Failures.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The suspicion grows that the Grant-Ward failure is much more serious than was at first suspected. A well known member of the Stock Exchange to-day said: "For four or five months I have heard remarks of the queer transactions of Grant & Ward. I do not think $5,000,000 by any means an extravagant estimate of the firm. My belief is they exceed $1,- 000,000. What the assets can be, no one knows, but they are probably very small and the disparity in the figures will undoubtedly cause surprise." The clerk of Grant & Ward said: "The amount of liabilities will undoubtedly be very large.
They are discovering new business every day."

A Terrible Deed.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., May 9.—The little village of New Philadelphia, Washington county, was shaken from center to circumference by a most horrible deed on Monday, of which the news reached town last evening. There were two brothers, Josiah, aged twenty-two, and David Hamilton, aged forty-five, living in the town. Josiah kept a yellow pup with which he hunted squirrels. This dog got after David's sheep, and he chastised the dog. Josiah became enraged about it, and threatened to shoot his brother, who thought it an empty threat. But Josiah went home, got his double-barrelled shot gun, and, while his brother was inside the house, posted himself behind the door. When David came out, he emptied both barrels at him, aiming for his abdomen, but striking him in the hip. When the second shot saw his brother lying prostrate, he called his dog, shouldered his gun and disappeared, and so far as is known, has not been apprehended. David Hamilton was well respected. He lives now in a hopeless condition from his wounds.

The Springer Committee.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—John T. Mitchell, foreman of the second grand jury which considered the Star Route cases, was examined by the Springer committee to-day. He refused to answer the question whether Bliss, as government counsel, submitted any evidence against Kellogg, and continued, as follows:
"Bliss in his testimony before the jury in the Salisbury case, never left a paper in the possession of the grand jury for one minute. Every morning he would bring an immense basket of papers and take them away again in the afternoon." The witness testified that Walsh was the only witness examined concerning the Kellogg case, and he was only before the jury about twenty minutes.
The committee determined to subpoena the foreman of the third grand jury in the star route cases to testify to-morrow relative to any attempt which might have been made to shield Kellogg from indictment.

The Conference.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—The Methodist conference reassembled this morning, three additional bishops will adequately provide for the requirements of the Episcopal office.

A resolution to the effect that the general conference has the power to fix the residence of all bishops, other than Episcopal bishops, in any part of the country, was adopted.

ington, Ky., this morning.

Boyle case was argued before Judge Hench this afternoon. Affidavits will be presented next week to back the reasons given to-day, and Judge Hench will then decide on the motion.

Vice-president McCullough, of the Pennsylvania railroad system, was in Fort Wayne last night. In a conversation he said the Pennsylvania people were working hard day and night, but making no money. A much large tonnage was now carried over the Pennsylvania lines than at the corresponding period last year, but rates were so low that earnings were less. Mr. McCrea said they were carrying a large tonnage at about half the rate of a year ago. The trouble was there were too many railroads. He did not look for the construction of new roads to any extent for twenty years to come in the territory lying between the Allegheny mountains and the Mississippi river, the lakes and the Ohio river. The money for some years to come in this territory would be expended in improving existing roads.

A RATTLING TIME.

Mr. and Mrs. Conroy Pounded Each Other According to Prize Ring Rules—The Mull Transferred to the Police Court.

Social matters were enlivened somewhat on John street, in French town last night. Mr. and Mrs. John Conroy live there, and want the world to know the fact. They quarreled last night and Mr.
Conroy hit his wife a terrible blow in the face. This might stagger most women, but Mrs. Conroy is not that kind of a hairpin. She picked up the tea kettle and beat her husband over the head until he was knocked out. Officers Wahrenberg and Fuchsler stepped in about this time and carried Conroy to the cooling. The police judge fined him $5 and costs. This so enraged him that he filed an affidavit charging his wife with assault and battery. Conroy's eyes are black, his scalp is split, and his face bruised. Mrs. Conroy is also in bad shape, and nurses a couple of damaged optics.

THE RIGHT MAN.

Fred Richards Accused of the Murder of Amos Backensto by His Step Son and Others—A talk With Sheriff Schiefer.

The particulars in the case of the murder of Amos Backensto, near Berne, Adams county, are familiar, and the subsequent attempts to lynch Fred Richards and his step-son Smith are fresh in memory. Sheriff McGriff has succeeded in getting a startling confession out of young Smith, who turns state's witness against his step-father and accuses him of killing Backensto. THE SENTINEL reporter asked Sheriff Schiefer as to the confession this afternoon, and he admitted its truth reluctantly. It is also understood that other people, with a knowledge of the crime, are ready to appear against Richards. Robert Stratton, of this city, is attorney for Richards, and has sent for Sheriff McGriff. Richards is in jail here, and knows nothing of his step-son's confession. The news of this afternoon and yesterday's indignation prevented excitement and life would not be worth much there now.

A few days ago Veterinary Surgeon Rath held a post-mortem over a cow which had died in a peculiar manner. Kendallville News: "Mrs. A. A. Chapin, of Fort Wayne, was in this place last week visiting with her many friends and also attending the W. O. T. U. convention."

A Rochester man was fined $100 a few days ago for contempt of court, he having caused, so it is said, the intoxication of a witness in an important case pending at the time.

Amos Walters yesterday took Della Bole to the reform school. She is the erring New Haven girl. Mr. Walters returned to-day with an insane patient pronounced incurable.

Ottawa correspondence of the Toledo Bee: "Miss Garrett, of Fort Wayne, who has been the guest of Miss Ada Snow for the past three weeks, returned to her home Wednesday night."

Thomas Pierce has been appointed agent of the West Shore line at Louisville, Ky. Mr. Pierce was formerly traveling agent of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road and is well known here.

In the accident on the Wabash road near Decatur, Ill., Mrs. J. B. Reatez, of this city, suffered a contusion of the back and right foot. She was unable to walk for a time. Three Warsaw people were hurt in the wreck.

Dr. Wm. Boyden, of Muncie, who is at Washington attending the meeting of the American Medical Association, lost his pocket book containing about $40 in cash and railroad tickets down the Potomac and home. He was assisted by Fort Wayne physicians.

Huntington Democrat: "Harmon Purviance received last Monday an offer of fifty dollars reward for the arrest or detention of a man by the name of Maston who got away with a team belonging to a Kokomo livery man. The thief claimed to be a book agent, and hired the team to deliver books, but failed to 'show up' at the time promised."

The second game between the Fort Wayne and Saginaw clubs was played yesterday. The Fort Waynes were crippled, weak and rattled, so that the Saginaw men had no easy thing of defeating the home team 7 to 0. Warner, catcher for the home team, was knocked senseless by a foul ball. Wood took his place and Joe Brown, with his crippled hand, played right field. Four new men are in the city, but the rules do not permit them to play here until next week. They will greatly strengthen the home club.

The elopement of the daughter of C. J. Whitney, the Detroit opera house manager, with the coachman, who styles himself Baron Neiville, was mentioned in these columns a day or two ago. It now transpires that the coachman has two other wives living. The feeling against Neiville is very strong, especially in Detroit, where his latest victim has always been a decided favorite in social circles. That Miss Whitney was not in her right mind when she left her home, there is now no doubt. Her case is a very sad one, and she is deserving of universal sympathy, as is her family.

The circus will come in Sunday from Bluffton.

Prof. Otto Schmidt will again come to this city and direct the Ariens.

Relatives of Hank Brown will strive hard to save him from the penitentiary.

Judge John Morris was at Indianapolis yesterday.

J. Sion Smith has a promising colt on his farm near the city. Money could not buy the animal.

Gustavus E. Bayless, of the Central grocery, and Miss Annie L. Moore were married last evening by the Rev. J. M. Seymour.

In the superior court yesterday A. D. Cressler was given judgment against the Standard Manufacturing company for $1,670.33.

A tramp attempted to kidnap a child at Huntington yesterday, but was frustrated by older members of the family, who happened to be near.

Felix Schantz has opened a photograph gallery over Babus' tailor shop, on West Berry street. He has been with Barrows for the past two years.

John Dratt, of the "Leader" saloon, was fined $20 yesterday for selling liquor without a license. Other parties are interested with Mr. Dratt in the saloon.

Curtis and Tyson, the slick Mayaville robbers, C. Harris, for the burglary of the Cable house, and Shiner Johnson, a negro, were indicted by the grand jury.

Jesse Smith, the young man in the Bluffton jail charged with being implicated in the Backesto murder, at Berne, is sick with the measles. There is yet hope that he will be brought to a confession.

The Huntington Democrat says that a man living in Jackson township, in that county, in order to cure a horse of balking, fastened some kind of an attachment to the animal's tongue and hitching another horse to it completely destroyed that member of the dumb brute, which afterwards had to be killed. Huntington needs a Henry Bergh.

The trial of Charley Butler, for murdering his wife, begins next Monday at Columbia City before Judge Long. The attorneys employed in the case are L. W. Royce, of Warsaw; W. F. McNaguy and Prosecutor Sickkfoose for the state. For the defense, C. H. Blackburn, of Cincinnati; H. J. Booth, of Columbus; Lee Raymond, of Warsaw, and J. W. Adair.

Wells County Times: "Sheriff McGriff, of Decatur, was in the city Monday. He came over to see the young man Smith, who is implicated in the Berne murder, but the young fellow won't be pumped at present. It is thought, however, that he will give the state of affairs away before long, then the right parties who committed the murder will be known. The boy knows who they are."

In 1868 the seventeen year louste lived, moved and had their being, much to the discomfort of the people. Their advent "after many days" will take place next year. An entomologist says that he heard the low murmurings of these insects in the woods last summer, expects to hear the same during the coming warm season and predicts an avalanche of the same above ground during the summer of '85—their proper season.

The brother of Hon. Bayless W. Hanna, editor of the Crawfordsville Review, Joseph W. Hanna, is under sentence of death in Montana, for the killing of his business partner. The shooting was clearly in self-defense, and Hanna surrendered at once to the authorities and submitted to immediate trial. He made little attempt to secure counsel, relying upon the virtue of his cause to give him a vindication and freedom. Imagine the surprise and amazement of the prisoner when the jury a few days ago returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at death by hanging the 22d of next August.

The marriage of Leo Strauss, of the firm of Nathan & Strauss, Chicago, to Miss Emma Sholem, the youngest daughter of Jacob Sholem, of Paris, Ill., was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents there Wednesday evening. The affair was grand in all its appointments and the presents quite valuable. The bride's presents were numerous and costly, and included over $7,000 worth of paintings, statuary, jewelry, bronzes, furniture, etc. The gifts of friends at home and abroad were displayed at the house. The gift of the groom's father was a check for $5,000, and the bride's father gave a valuable residence in Chicago. The costumes of the ladies were elegant. The couple left Paris yesterday morning for a bridal tour of about three weeks' duration in Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, New York, Niagara Falls, and thence to Chicago, their future home. Mr. Strauss formerly resided in Fort Wayne.

Apoplexy or rapid beating of the heart followed by periods of complete cessation, is caused chiefly by nervousness and bad blood. If the disease is neglected it is liable to result seriously, especially at a time of sudden excitement. Purify the blood, strengthen the muscular and nervous system, governing the heart, by using Dr. Chysoff's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and you will soon be rid of every trace of the affection.

fore Justice Hays this afternoon.

Headache, toothache, earache, are pain.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported for THE SENTINEL by the weather bureau at Washington are as follows: Partly cloudy weather and local rains, followed by fair weather, southwest to northwest winds, slight rise in temperature.

"Whom the gods love die young," says Byron; but why die when you can cure the cold or cough, which neglected means death? Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup mayn't be in favor with the gods, for it keeps thousands from the grasp, but mortals, who take it, praise it.

In the case of Benjamin F. Wiley vs.
Jacob Baumgardner, appealed from Wells county, the superior court reversed the decision of the lower court.

Many of the bitters and quack nostrums of the day are also advertised for consumption on the plea that the only thing that the stuff wont cure is the avaricious, ignoble grief of the proprietor. Don't be deceived. The best remedy for strengthening the lungs, sootheing all irritation, and stopping the cough, is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of wild cherry.
It has cured many cases where physicians had given up hope.

The Adams Express company is making an aggressive movement in the territory occupied by the Baltimore and Ohio express, and it is believed that it will lead to a war on rates between the express companies.

A double discovery was Athliphoros.
So much akin are rheumatism and neuralgia, that when the great specific was found for the former it was found also for the latter. Mrs. Dietrich, 16 Hudson street, New Haven, Conn., writes: "Have been a terrible sufferer from neuralgia in head and face. The doctor advised a trial of Athliphoros as the best thing known. Two doses drove all the pain away. I shall always keep it in the house."

Concentrate Vitality.
All excitants, to radically cure, must be innocent. The art consists in continuing their use until matters in the system contrary to health are removed.
Health finds happiness in the mere sense of existence.

Brandreth's Pills stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to throw off all morbid humors, and cure disease, no matter by what name it may be called.

The secret of recruiting the vital principle is discovered in Brandreth's Pills, because they remove what holds it in check. It is believed that they possess the elements of vitality. Heat, healthy animal warmth, is certainly increased by the use of this wonderful medicine.
Provided the great organs are not irre-parably injured, there is no disease Brandreth's Pills will not cure. The true art of healing is to assist nature to throw off disease—to concentrate, as it were, the whole vitality of the system to eject the enemy that has fastened on a part.

Get Brandreth's Pills! Be put off with none other, and follow the printed directions and health will surely bless you.

The Lindenwood Lodge Entrance.

Yesterday afternoon Hon. I. D. G.
Nelson opened the bids for the erection of a lodge entrance to Lindenwood cemetery. Two bids were in. Christian Boesker would do the work for $5,879.50 and W. and J. Geake for $8,475. The Messrs. Geake were awarded the contract. Wing and Mahurin, the architects, have prepared the plans. The lodge to be is a neat and tasteful building in the Gothic style of architecture, and will have a private office for the board of trustees, a reception room for the public, and ladies' and gentlemen's retiring rooms. The base of the building is to be of Bedford limestone, and above this to the gutter is to be S. B. Bond's Middian sandstone. It is to have a circular bell-tower of stone, with slate roof with terra cotta cresting and finials. The floor will be of black and white tile and marbled slate, the wainscoting to imitate Scotch green, serpentine and red Scotch granite.

Jay Gould has surprised the bears by again commencing to publish monthly the earnings of his several systems in the west and southwest. The reports just published show the street was mistaken in its deductions, and instead of losing they have been making money.
This is hardly complimentary to Jay Gould, and indicates that the reason for not reporting the earnings was to deceive the street and break the market—one of Gould's sharp tricks. He has probably taken in a large line at low figures. The daily Indicator, which has been a bear on the Wabash, says:
"There is no further danger of a receiver for Wabash. So long as Gould is the president, he will take care of that."
